Student Spotlight

Faith, Gianna, & Violet F.

Faith, Gianna & Violet F. come to the library almost every day after school to volunteer. Even though they are only in the 2nd grade, they are very helpful. They will sit patiently and help 1st grade students read and take AR quizzes. They are very kind to the younger students (who are only 1 year younger) and are very encouraging to the students that they read with. They have learned how to re-shelve certain sections of library books, and they help dust the shelves periodically. All the while surpassing their own AR goals repeatedly.

Donuts for Dad - Monday, May 22nd

St. Gregory the Great Spiritual Theme for the 2016 - 2017 School Year We Believe in the Communion of Saints

In the fall of 2013 one of Pope Francis' General Audiences was focused on one of our profound Faith beliefs which we selected as our spiritual theme for the school year. He said, "Today I would like to speak about a very beautiful reality of our faith, namely, the 'communion of saints.'" Those of us who believe in Jesus the Christ and are baptized into the Church are bonded in the communion of saints.

This year it has been our hope and desire that all of our students, faculty, staff and families have grown in their knowledge and love for all saints but especially for those whose lives touched us as we spent time with their faith stories. We are grateful to the following holy women and men who are now more intimately a part of our lives: St. Gregory the Great, St. Anthony of Padua, St. Kateri Tekawitha, St. Louis and Zelie Martin, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, Sts. Monica and Augustine, St. Teresa of Calcutta, St. Maria Goretti, and St. John Paul II.

May their lives continue to guide us during our earthly journey so we may join them one day in praising our gracious and loving God in Heaven. Amen.
