

GREAT WEEK AHEAD

WEEK OF OCT. 11TH-17TH

A weekly newsletter brought to you by St. Gregory the Great Catholic School

Student Spotlight

Aaron L. was nominated for student spotlight this week. Aaron is in Ms. Floyd's 5th grade class. During Mass a younger student was having a difficult time. The student was moved to sit next to Aaron (socially distanced). Aaron immediately began to look after the younger student, encouraging him to follow the Mass, giving him thumbs up and congratulations when the young boy made the right choice, and even explained parts of the Mass and Rosary to the student. Wonderful Mass role model!!!

Faculty Spotlight

Mrs. Martha Martinez was nominated for faculty spotlight this week. She was nominated for always being so good with the students when they pick up their trays in the cafeteria at lunch! Not only does Mrs. Martinez serve the students their lunches, but she also prepares such delicious meals for the students, faculty and staff of StG. Mrs. Martinez is giving the students of StG the beautiful memory of the lunch lady who greets them with a smile and who serves them a delicious lunch. We are blessed at StG to have a full service kitchen which many schools no longer have. If a student, faculty or staff member forgets a lunch, Mrs. Martinez is always there to make sure nobody goes hungry! Thank you Mrs. Martinez for being such a bright spot in the lives of each of us at StG!
