

GREAT WEEK AHEAD

WEEK OF OCT. 25TH-31ST

A weekly newsletter brought to you by St. Gregory the Great Catholic School

Student Spotlight

Benjamin M. was nominated for student spotlight this week. Ben is in Ms. Barloco-Flores' 1st grade class. He is a gift to our 1st grade class. He takes great pride in holding the door for all of us, assisting the teacher with little things in the classroom like picking up work when completed, helping his classmates log into AR, or walking items to the office with a buddy when needed. His manners never go unnoticed. When he was at the office door he held it going both in and out for his classmate (a young lady). Ben has a love for learning and he is a friend to all. Thank you Benjamin for showing us how to #beGREAT!

Faculty Spotlight

Sr. Cabrini was nominated for faculty spotlight this week.

What would we do without her? She is here both in person and in spirit. First thing in the morning she goes into the church and prays for all our community. Then she comes to first grade and meets and greets all the children with a smile and hand sanitizer as they enter the room. She makes sure copies are ready for the week, files all graded work into the purple folders, checks in all the Friday lunch money for 1st grade, organizes homework for the teacher, keeps an eye on us at lunchtime, and walks us to the bathroom when we really need a break! She is St. Gregory's greatest gift to 1st grade and all the children at our school. We are all more than thankful for her talents and love. Sr. Cabrini is truly a joy and a gift to us all.
