

GREAT WEEK AHEAD

Week 10

October 19, 2025

Solidarity & Fall Fest Fun

What a week! Homecoming was filled with fun, school spirit, and community pride. We hope our students enjoyed the week of activities, the Big Give Glow Dance incentive, and the Homecoming Dance. We also had a great turnout for the pep rally and tailgate — thank you to all the volunteers and staff who made it possible!

We love seeing so many parents getting involved and encourage everyone to be present whenever they can — this is what makes our community so special!

We have another exciting week ahead:

Monday – Pink Out Day

Wednesday – Solidarity Day: A day to promote kindness and stand against bullying. All Catholic schools will be participating.

 Friday – Fall Festival (6–9 PM)

Friday will also be early dismissal and Parent-Teacher Conferences. Please check in with your room parents for details and sign up for additional volunteer opportunities — including set-up, clean-up, and command center help.

It's a busy and joy-filled week — thank you for continuing to make St. Gregory such a vibrant community!

Set up and clean up Volunteers are needed

Set up on Thursday at 5:30 PM

Friday Clean up at 9:00 PM

For years, Hope for the Future (HFF) has helped families cover part of their tuition. If your family has ever received HFF, you're exactly the kind of family that ESAs will support. Instead of covering 10–20% of tuition, ESAs will provide approximately $10,000 per child, per year—often enough to cover nearly full tuition. Catholic schools will guide you from HFF to ESA support, so your children can continue to grow in faith, academics, and service. Learn more: archsa.org/catholic-schools/esa
