

Book Report Project Fourth going into 5th

The Alchemyst by Michael Scott

- Use a shoebox
- Create a diorama of your favorite character
- Inside the box – create a scene with your favorite character in it
- Across the top of the box – write the title of the book and the author
- On the right side of the box – write your name
- On the left side of the box – write the name of your character
- On the back of the box – attach a written or typed 200 to 250-word paragraph about your favorite character. Be sure to include why you chose the particular character, a description of your character, and some of your character's adventures.
