

Summer Reading project

Dialectic Journal for 5th going into 6th; 6th going into 7th, and 7th going into 8th. Students will read and respond to the required summer reading book. Using a composition book students will:

Identify a quote they feel is important in the chapter

Identify the speaker of the selected quote

Report the importance of the quote and their response to it.

There must be an entry for each chapter of the book.

Upon return from the summer break, students will submit their journal for review. This is a required project and will count as a test grade. All submissions are due by Friday, August the 16th.
